

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

the November issue of Newsletter of the International School for Social and Business Studies (ISSBS) has been released. In this issue:

6th generation of doctoral students

We are proud to announce, that this year, we enrolled the 6th generation of doctoral students in Knowledge Management programme. Doctoral study programme, where professors from world-renowned universities have been lecturing in recent years, is carried out in English, as 27 currently enrolled international students are coming from Mexico, Russia and Africa in addition to Slovenia, Croatia and Albania. You can read more HERE.

Lecture by a visiting foreign expert from the University of Oulu

Between 8 and 10 November 2021, as part of the "Foreign Visiting Teachers Project", dr. Janne Harkonen has visited ISSBS. Dr. Harkonen is an Adjunct Professor Dr and Senior Research Fellow at the Faculty of Technology (University of Oulu (Finland)). Dr. Janne Harkonen carried out lectures on writing and publishing scientific articles at the subjects Master's Seminar and Business Skills Development. You can read more HERE.

A call for Erasmus + student mobility 2021/2022 has been published

A new call for student mobility for the purpose of studying or carrying out an internship under the Erasmus + program was launched in November. The new call brings many innovations, such as higher scholarships, even more exchange options, allowances for students with fewer opportunities and a green travel allowance. You can read more about Erasmus mobilities HERE.

8th project meeting of the project "LittleBigEntrepreneurs"

A project meeting of the "LittleBigEntrepreneurs" project partners took place on 18 and 19 November 2021 at the Primary School OŠ borcev za severno mejo Maribor. The project develops key entrepreneurial skills and entrepreneurial mindset in children. At the meeting, the current entrepreneurial activities of partners (or learning games) from Greece, Estonia and Slovenia were presented. You can read more HERE.

Guests from practice in November

In the course Business Informatics, we hosted the Assistant Director for Technology of Nova Vizija, Information Engineering and Consulting company from Žalec, Dejan Zili, who is a top expert in managing large information projects and business intelligence. In the subject E-business we hosted the director of the company Creaplus, mag. Andrej Guštin, who lectured to students on e-payment and security of e-payment and e-business.

New student council of ISSBS

The students elected their new representatives. The ISSBS Student Council, which is the representative body of ISSBS students determined by the Higher Education Act, the ISSBS Statute and the Rules of the Student Council, consists of seven students, representatives of undergraduate and postgraduate study programs. You can read more HERE.